"This time, I have a feeling I won't be coming back," said Radioman 2-c Robert J. Paradis, 25, as he left his home at 231 Broadway after Christmas 1944 to return to his duties on a PT boat in the Pacific. Paradis subsequently lost his life in fighting the Japs, and was buried in the Philippines.

But he came home—in a flag-draped casket—Tuesday, and this Thursday morning will be borne with sorrowing prayers and military tributes to a final resting place in Mt. Pleasant Cemetery.

One of four members of his family in service, Radioman Paradis was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Paradis. His father is well known, for since 1919 he and his brother have operated the dining car in Arlington Center.

The young sailor spent Christmas 1944 at home on furlough, after having served 18 months in the Pacific. It was just as he left to return to duty he voiced doubt that he would return.

Six months later word reached his family that he had met death. This was June 15, 1945—not long before the war ended.

A native of Somerville, he had spent virtually his entire life in Arlington and was a graduate of both St. Agnes' School and Arlington High School. Before entering service he was an assistant manager for the Thom McAnn Co.

In addition to his parents he is survived by a sister, Marcella, who served in the WAVES; four brothers, Roland E. who was with the Army in Italy, Norman who served with the Navy in the Pacific, and Leo and Ronald Paradis.

Reject All Bids On Town Hall Addition

The long proposed addition to the Arlington town hall will be indefinitely postponed.

Recently, the selectmen received six bids on the project, but the lowest bid was for $166,001.38—which is $41,001.38 more than the $125,000 appropriated by the 1946 town meeting.

Patrolman Donovan Retiring

Patrolman Thomas M. Donovan will retire from the police department next Sunday, the 19th, on his 65th birthday.

Appointed to the force Feb. 2, 1914, Officer Donovan has served faithfully ever since.

He is married to the former Sophie Piva and they have one daughter, Evelyn. They live at 12 Teale St.

Under a recent ruling, municipal employees automatically retire on pension on their 65th birthdays. His retirement was approved, as a matter of form, by the selectmen Monday night.

Patrolman Donovan was not prepared to say this week what he would do with his time when he quits the police force.

The services today were to be from the D. W. Grannan and Son funeral home, with solemn military high mass at St. Agnes Church and burial in Mt. Pleasant Cemetery.

Arrangements for the funeral were in the hands of the local American Legion Post, which was furnishing an honor guard, firing squad and bugler.

of the impasse, the selectmen threw up their hands and announced that all of the bids were being rejected.

There can be no town hall addition, they said, until and unless an additional appropriation is voted. This automatically defers the matter until the March, 1949 town meeting.

Local Board Again Overruled As State Gives Permit To Convert House Here Into 7 Apartments

Overruling the Arlington Board of Appeals, the State Emergency Housing Commission this week granted permission to convert a 21-room house at 100 Pleasant St. into as many as seven apartments.

The large residence, known as the Henry Hornblower home, is owned by the Misses Isabel and Catherine Chisholm.

Application for a permit to alter the building into a number of apartments was sought some time ago from the building inspector, who referred the matter to the board of appeals. A number of abutting property owners objected, and the local board subsequently rejected the application.

The case then was taken to the emergency state board, counsel for the Misses Chisholm arguing that the project would in no way affect property values in the neighborhood and that the new apartments would provide much-needed homes.

Notified this week that the state board, under its powers, had laid aside the Arlington board's refusal and granted the permit to go ahead with the work, the Misses Chisholm began making plans to proceed with the undertaking.

A few weeks ago, the state board similarly overruled the local board in granting permission to D. W. Grannan, local undertaker to build a cottage at the rear of his property at 378 Mass. Ave.

Miss Ellen Hines Found Dead In Home Where She Lived 78 Years

In the same house at 60 North Union St., in which she was born 78 years ago, and in which she had spent her entire life, Miss Ellen Hines was found dead Sunday morning.

Her inert body was discovered on the kitchen floor of her home by her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Martin Hines, who lives next door at 64 North Union St.

As had been her custom every Sunday, Miss Hines was to have met her daughter-in-law, and go by bus to mass at St. Agnes' Church. It happened, this time, that Mrs. Hines missed the usual bus. She went to church on the next bus, thinking that Miss Hines must have gone on ahead.

When she didn't see the aged woman in church, she went to her home immediately after mass, thinking perhaps she had overslept. She had no promission of anything wrong, for while Miss Hines had been under treatment for a heart condition she had shown much improvement and the last three months had appeared in excellent health.

1 Out Of 6 Voters Here Cast Ballots In Party Primaries

One-sixth of Arlington's 22,439 registered voters cast ballots in Tuesday's party primaries.

The total vote was 3692, with 2220 Republican ballots and 1472 Democrats voting. This was, incidentally, an increase of 352 Democratic votes over the last primaries two years ago, and for the Republicans a gain of 45.

Governor Bradford swamped his rival, Edward M. Rowe, here as elsewhere, getting 1,866 votes to Rowe's 313. Bradford was not, however, the highest man here on the GOP ballot, eight candidates receiving higher totals.

On the Democratic slate Paul A. Dever polled 1194 votes, with 179 casting ballots for Maurice J. Tobin, who had withdrawn.

An interesting sidelight of the Democratic voting for two candidates for state representative in the 28th district was that Henry E. Keenan polled 859 votes, or 350 more than he did two years ago.

Individual vote totals were as follows:

The history of Arlington (first known as Menotomy, and then West Cambridge) goes back to the early days of the Massachusetts Bay Colony. The first grist mill in the Bay Colony was erected here; Arlington also had the first free public library in the state. The men of the town answered Paul Revere's call at daybreak, engaged in the heaviest fighting on that memorable day and made the first capture of British men and supplies in the revolution.

About Town With Muriel

BY MURIEL MacDONALD MURPHY

ONE OF SEPTEMBER'S loveliest brides was Miss Marie C. Sullivan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice D. Sullivan of Sutherland Road, who was wed recently at St. James Church in Arlington Heights to Mr. Robert J. Feloney of Cambridge. Miss Sullivan, gown in ivory satin fashioned with a full train, was escorted to the gladiola-decorated altar by her father. The Rev. Maurice J. O'Connor officiated at the nine o'clock ceremony and nuptial Mass which followed. The bride's long veil of tulle fell from a coronet of orange blossoms and her white prayer book was topped by an orchid and cascading stephanotis.

Mrs. Thomas J. Glennon of Arlington served as matron of honor for her sister while another sister, Miss Constance Sullivan of Arlington, and Miss Mary V. Feloney, sister of the bridegroom, were bridesmaids. All the bridal attendants wore picturesque leghorn hats with their gowns of yellow faille. Cascades of beacon red and yellow gladioli formed their bouquets.

Attending to the duties of best man for his brother was Mr. Lawrence F. Feloney of Cambridge. The usher corps included Mr. James J. Feloney and Mr. Paul G. Feloney of Cambridge, brothers of the bridegroom, Mr. Terence M. Sullivan of Arlington, brother of the bride, and Mr. Thomas J. Glennon of Arlington.

For the wedding of her daughter, Mrs. Sullivan chose a gown of powder blue crepe contrasted by navy accessories. White gardenias made up her corsage. Mrs. Feloney wore a gray hat and matching accessories with her wine crepe gown. Her corsage was of white gardenias.

Following their reception at Ye Old Countryside Inn in Lexington, Mr. and Mrs. Feloney left for their wedding trip through Vermont and Canada. On their return, they will make their home in Quincy.

Mrs. Feloney is a graduate of Arlington High School and was employed as a secretary at Harvey Radio Laboratories in Cambridge. Her husband, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence C. Feloney of Cambridge, graduated with the class of 1946 from Harvard University where he starred on the hockey team.

ATTRACTIVE Miss Rose Leverone, daughter of Mrs. Clara Leverone of Park Ave. became the bride last Saturday of Mr. Arthur Phillips, son of Mrs. Sara Phillips of Sunset Rd. at a 9 o'clock ceremony and nuptial Mass performed in St. James Church, Arlington Heights. Wearing a plum shaded hat of velvet with her matching soft wool suit, Miss Leverone carried a cascade of gladioli.

Serving as maid of honor and only attendant for her sister, Miss Theresa L. Leverone of Arlington wore a gray satin dress with matching hat. She carried a bouquet of fuchsia gladioli.

MISS ETHEL L. SMITH and Ebon Thoren were married Sept. 4th at the Swedish Augustana Lutheran Church, Cambridge. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Robert A. Smith, while her sister, Mrs. Richard R. Holley of West Kingston, R. I., was maid of honor.

Bridesmaids were Molly Ann Thoren and Janice Holley, with little Nancy Holley as flower girl. About 400 attended the ceremony. The newlyweds, now honeymooning in Colorado, will reside in Arlington.

Miss Virginia Roberts of 19 Fountain Ave., Somerville, was married to Mr. Norman Nelson of 96 Oxford St., Arlington, recently by the Rev. Charles E. Pedersen at Goddard Chapel, Tufts College.

The bride was attended by Miss Jean Lister of Somerville as maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Miss Doreen Keith of Brookline, Miss June Turner of Medford, Miss Lois Nelson of Arlington and Miss Azora Roberts of Somerville. Miss Linda Howe of East Weymouth, niece of the bride, was flower girl. Mrs. Ethel Ringland of Arlington was soloist.

A reception followed and the couple went to New Hampshire on their honeymoon. They will reside in Somerville.

The bride is a graduate of Boston University College of Liberal Arts, class of '48 and the bridegroom graduated in June from Tufts College. Mr. Nelson is entering the Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy at Tufts.

Waters Heads Committee

Edwin L. Waters, who this week was nominated without opposition as Democratic candidate for State Senate from the Sixth District, has been reelected chairman of the Democratic City and Ward Committee in Medford, his home town.

The Sixth District includes Arlington, and Mr. Waters in the Nov. 2 election will oppose Sen. Harris S. Richardson of Winchester, Republican, who has held the office 12 years.

Oliver Beebe, chairman of the Boston Chapter's service declared this week.

"Plan your fall and winter program now to include at least four hours a week as a member of this volunteer service" said Mrs. Beebe. "That's the equivalent of 35 minutes a day which you will use to help others back to health."

Thousands of patients, ranging in age from infants to elderly men and women, are taken to local hospitals each year by this service which also transports hundreds of entertainers each week to local military and veterans' hospitals.

"You will meet movie stars, cartoonists, doctors, magicians, hostesses and hundreds of courageous youngsters; you will take patients from veterans' hospitals foot, ball and hockey games and to concerts and plays as a member of this service," Mrs. Beebe said.

Seek Drivers For Red Cross

"Arlington men and women are invited to join with 150 greater Boston residents who are needed as Red Cross Motor Service drivers to transport patients to hospital clinics and perform other needed community services," Mrs. J.

Pass $6000 Mark As Appeal For Monica Takes Fresh Spurt

The Monica Trust Fund soared well above $6,000 this week as, instead of diving down, a fresh spurt was noted in the drive to raise funds for the rehabilitation of four year old Monica Cotter, disfigured fire victim.

Outstanding developments were:

(1)—A total of $488.79 was collected in the tag days Friday and Saturday.

Patients At Hospital Unruffled By Blasts For Building Addition

Instead of being disturbed or alarmed, patients at Symmes Arlington Hospital have watched with interest blasting operations that have been found necessary in excavating the site for hospital addition.

Considerable blasting has been necessitated by the fact that, in digging the foundation, a great deal of rock ledge has been encountered.

Now the excavation is nearly complete, and work on the building will start within two weeks.

E. Vernon Rich, hospital administrator, said this week:

"There has been no curtailment of hospital activity. Insofar as possible all patients have been notified ahead of the blast which we thought might shake the building. The younger patients have enjoyed watching the excavating program from wheel chairs.

"Temporary fire escapes have been required, and all precautions have been taken for the safety of patients, and the noise has been held at an absolute minimum."

The general contractors are McCreary and Theriault of Boston. The excavating work is being done by Welch.

Stolen Auto Recovered In Few Minutes

An auto stolen from an Arlington man Saturday night wasn't taken for long, nor driven very far.

At 10:42 P. M. Walter Stephens of 67 North Union St., reported that his car had been stolen from Mass Ave., near Pleasant St., sometime after 10:15 p. m.

At 10:50 p. m. police came across the car, abandoned, on Swan St., scarcely more than a stone's throw from the spot whence it was taken.

Tag Days Net $488; Rita Tops With $53

Eighteen year old Rita Holt of 9 Mill st., took top honors in the Monica Tag Days Friday and Saturday, when she turned in a collection box containing $53.

The total two-day collection was $488.79. There were 63 boys and girls at work—all volunteers.

Rita, whose fine work won the commendation of the committee, previously had gone out on a house to house collection with two friends and collected more than $73.

Bob Perham headed the special tag day committee, assisted by John Byrne Jr., Francis Higgins, Charles O. Toomey and Clifford Cook.

A second collection at Somerville's Dilboy Field last week netted $81.83. Arranged by George A. Harris, Monica Trust Fund committee member, this was the second collection taken at fights. The first brought in $116.27, giving a total for the two weeks of $198.10.

Harris was assisted by the following Arlington girls: Patricia Reed, Louise Adduci, Patricia Saville, Dorothy Morahan and Barbara Chace.

Elementary Schools Gain 71 Pupils, But Sr., Jr. Highs Lose

There were 35 fewer pupils in Arlington's public schools Monday than on the same day last year. The elementary schools, as expected, showed a slight increase in enrollment this amounted to a net gain of 71 and the high school registration alone has fallen by 45, while the junior high enrollment is down 66.

Unless prolonged warm weather is retarding the return to school of an unusually large number of pupils, the net registration this year is expected to continue below the 1947-48 figures.

The high school enrollment on Monday stood at 1545, compared with 1590 last year.

Junior High School West gained five pupils for a new high of 595, but Jr. High East was down to 377 from 394 and Jr. High Center down to 243 from 290.

The Junior High Industrial Arts School enrollment of 50 was an even match for last year's figure on the same day.

Among the elementary schools, several made notable gains—making up for losses in other cases. Crosby School jumped from 447 to 499, Peirce from 433 to 469 and Russell from 259 to 282. One school the Locke, reported 492 pupils—

High School	1947	1948
Jr. H. Ind. Arts	1545	1590
Jr. H. Center	243	290
Jr. H. East	377	394
Jr. H. West	595	590
Brackett	410	421
Crosby	499	447
Cutter	421	413
Hardy	601	625
Locke	492	492
Parmenter	224	237
Peirce	469	433
Russell	282	259

I WONDER if the Arlington Housing Authority has decided yet on the type of construction for veterans' homes?

I WONDER what, if anything, will be done about giving policemen time off for the holidays they work?

I WONDER if Richard Tierney hasn't been doing a very good job as acting fire chief?

I WONDER how Dr. and Mrs. Beaton like being back in Arlington after such an enjoyable summer at their summer residence in Magnolia—not to mention a motor trip to Canada?

I WONDER why motorists racing along Appleton St., needlessly sound their horns at Hillside Ave. and Claremont Ave.?

I WONDER if dogs that bark all night ever disturb their own owners?

I WONDER if the experts are right in predicting the A.H.S. football team as a possible state titlist this year?

I WONDER how A.H.S. football fans are going to like the addition of the new stands to Warren Pierce Field?

I WONDER if "Red" M. from the heights still has an interest over South Boston way?

I WONDER if "Jack" Cashman realizes that many people consider him one of the best operators on the Metro system?

I WONDER if Cliff Day hasn't straightened out that "slice" of his and has begun to hit them far down the middle of the fairway?

I WONDER if those green signs that Atty. Vahey used in the primary campaign weren't quite appropriate for an Irish candidate?

I WONDER who wonders how Lucille made out at her pot and pan party a week ago?

I WONDER if the story of the nurse marrying the doctor wasn't given a new twist this week when an Arlington TREE SURGEON took out a license to marry a hospital nurse?

I WONDER how Patrolman Thomas M. Donovan will enjoy his well-earned vacation?

I WONDER how many know about the Comet Club street fair at Calvary Methodist Church this Saturday, from 2 to 6 p. m.?

DANCES BEGIN

The autumn series of dances sponsored by the Arlington Youth Association will get under way this Saturday evening, at town hall.

After this dance, the weekly dances will be held on Friday nights.

I WONDER who the person is that whistles for his dog each night on Pleasant St.?
